AFRICANANCESTRY.COM TO HOST HISTORIC ANCESTRAL REVEAL AT GHANA'S 'DOOR OF NO RETURN' TO MARK THE 400-YEAR ANNIVERSARY OF AFRICANS TO AMERICA

Ancestry Pioneer Joins NAACP's Jamestown to Jamestown Delegation and Ghana's The Year of Return 2019

WASHINGTON, DC (June 5, 2019) – Nearly Four hundred years ago the first enslaved Africans were sold to America, losing much of their rich African heritage. This August, AfricanAncestry.com will correct history for many African Americans in an historic ancestral Reveal hosted on African soil. The event takes place in Accra, Ghana, and is a part of the NAACP's Jamestown to Jamestown event in partnership with Ghana's Year of Return 2019.

With dozens from across the U.S. already registered to take part, the Reveal ceremony is open to anyone interested in joining the transformative journey at www.Jamestown2Jamestown.com.

"I can think of only one thing as epic as learning your African roots and that's learning your African roots while in AFRICA," said AfricanAncestry.com President and Co-founder Dr. Gina Paige. "During this significant time in American history, we are also focused on Africa before America because our heritage is much more than 400 years."
